OUR CAMP ABOUT THE CITY.

White Kid Slippers, Sandals and Ties. Pecor's.

Robert Hill of this city has completed the plastering of the M. E. Church at Tolleboro, and it reflects great credit on him as a mechanic. But when you get a Mayville man to do your work you can count on a good job.

AT SHANNON CHURCH.

Immense Gathering, Much Speeching and a Great Day.

The annual custom of decorating the graves of our dead has long since passed beyond the ceremony of strewing flowers on the graves of the soldier-boys alone, and the beautiful custom has now become so general that the grassy mounds that make the resting-place of all our loved ones are recipients of floral tributes on the 30th of May recurring May.

In obedience to an invitation from Messrs. A. J. Stiles, B. W. Wood and Colonel John B. Herndon, Committee, The Ledger scribe was present at Shannon Wednesday.

The day was one of perfect loveliness, all Nature decked out in her rich garb of green, the balmy air fragrant with the perfume of roses, and the cheerful notes of song-birds borne on every breeze.

"Shannon" is the very synonym for one of the prettiest and most carefully kept rural cemeteries in all this land, as it is also the synonym for the center of a most lavish hospitality.

It was nearly 11 o'clock when the writer reached the grounds, and half an hour later the gathering numbered fully 1,500. It may well be doubted if ever before, at any time or place in Mason county, was seen such a vast number of buggies—a fitting answer to the demagog that our farmers are growing weary off as the years go by. Such an array of vehicles, and such an outpouring of well-to-do people, would not have been possible in Mason county even as late as twenty years ago.

But all this bears no reference to the matter in hand—although it must be admitted that it is equally as relevant as some of the addresses that were made on the occasion. Of all places and all times, the home of our dead and a gathering of the survivors to pay tribute to them in the least fitted for remarks that were in the slightest of partisanship—whether it be the partisanship of religious belief or the partisanship of an economic system.

An elaborate program had been arranged, but owing to the non-attendance of some who had been assigned to speak, it was varied somewhat.

Rev. Wightman was Master of Ceremonies, and short addresses were made by Revs. W. T. Hibbs and F. M. Tindler, and an elaborate historical sketch of the Shannon Church was read by Colonel John B. Herndon, than whom no one is better fitted for the task.

Following these came dinner—and such a dinner! It was typical of Mason county, however, and but added another testimonial to the unbounded hospitality of her noble people. It was the writer's good fortune to share the hospitality of Mrs. Ann Jefferson, mother of our worthy High Sheriff, who was ably assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Chandler, Miss Jessie Peck, Henry and Perry Jefferson, and several others who were unremittent in their attentions to a large number of guests.

Notwithstanding the unusually large crowd there was plenty and to spare. After dinner Rev. E. B. Calk of this city delivered the address of the day, which was listened to with much interest, and which was criticized with as many variations as one of Wagner's most fantastic numbers.

The program concluded with a brief but eloquent address by Milton C. Johnson and the large crowd began to disperse, only regretting that the day could not be extended.

The Old Times Distillery Company of Louisville is to perpetuate its World's Fair exhibit, and the building located on the grounds in Chicago is to be removed there at once.

Don't forget that you can get one of those handsome clocks at P. J. Murphy's the Jeweler at the low price of $3.50. The clock is eight day. It strikes hour and half hour on an elegant gong. Can be had in walnut and oak.

Haywood Commencement Exercises at the Opera-house next Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. Musical and physical culture entertainment Tuesday evening. Regular commencement exercises, interspersed with music, Wednesday evening. Admission free. Seats reserved seats can be secured at Nelson's for five cents additional.

Two damage suits for $30,000 each were filed at Louisville against the Chesapeake, Ohio and Southwestern Railroad Company. They are the result of a disastrous collision Dec. 17th, 1893, in the tunnel in Muldraugh's Hill, in Hardin county. The first suit was filed by Ella M. Keegan, administratrix of Thomas J. Egan, who was engineer of the ill-fated train, and the other by Harry Dowd, administrator of John Dowd, fireman.

If you need spectacles or eye glasses, don't have them fitted in the old-fashioned way by any one who may have them for sale. Consult us. We examine your eyes scientifically and make the glasses to fit. We can give you the names of hundreds from our prescription book who have been successfully fitted by our method who never had glasses to suit them before. We guarantee satisfaction in every case, and make no charge for examination. Ballenger, Jeweler.

DECORATION DAY.

Its Observance in This City a Grand Success Yesterday.

It was Hon. John A. Logan who first conceived the thought of setting aside the 30th of May to be known as Decoration Day, which will stand as a monument to his memory.

Decorations Days have come and gone and have been observed, but we believe yesterday's celebration was the best Mayville's comrades and citizens ever held.

The day was all that could be desired—neither too warm nor too cool, and that inspired many to turn out and help make the day's proceedings what they were—a grand success.

The city was crowded with visitors from the county and Aberdeen, and everything passed off quietly in order that their visit might be made a pleasant one.

The members of Joseph Heiser Post No. 13, G. A. R., have been busy for a long time arranging matters and a suitable program for the observance of the day, and, be it to their credit, there was nothing left out of the order of exercises that would tend to throw a damper on the proceedings of the day.

Promptly at 1:30 p. m. the Post and M. C. Hutchins Camp, Sons of Veterans, headed by the Mayville Band, left Grand Army Hall for the cemetery, and upon their arrival there found one of the largest crowds that ever attended Decoration Day exercises, the sacred place being very near full.

After the decoration of the graves by the Women's Relief Corps and their fair daughters, and the singing of several National airs, Colonel Worthington, the orator of the day, then took the stand, and for the time he occupied it his address was a grand one, and all who listened to it were well pleased with both the speaker and his speech.

After the carrying out of the program at the cemetery the veterans fell in line and, to the sweet strains of music from the band, marched to the Hall in Cox Building.

The old vets are to be congratulated in their splendid showing of yesterday.

The C. and O. will parallel the Norfolk and Western road through Southern West Virginia.

Rev. R. B. Neal of Grayson is mentioned in connection with the Prohibition nomination for Congress in this District.

The residence of S. F. Stone, near Moorefield, burned, together with most of the household goods. Loss about $6,000, with $2,000 insurance.

Train No. 1, which passes here at 6:10 a. m., had a sleeper full of pretty girls from Staunton, Va., yesterday morning en route to Dallas, Texas.

Frost seems to have done a great deal of damage in the Southern part of the state. It has been unusually severe for this season of the year.

Much interest is, even this far ahead, being taken in the Oldham County Fair to be held next August. One of the features will be "Old Folks' Day."

The worshippers at the First Presbyterian Church are requested to take notice that the Prayer-meeting tonight will take place at 7:30 instead of 8, as announced last Sunday.

Detective Charles Hickey of Louisville, who killed James Parrel last Friday morning in Annie Johnson's bawling, was acquitted. The evidence showed that the act was committed in self-defense.

Called meeting of M. C. Hutchins Camp, S. of V., tonight. All members are requested to attend. Business of importance. J. H. Calk, Captain. W. R. Rudy, First Sergeant.

At a meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the Western Kentucky Asylum for the Insane the contract for the enlargement of the institution was awarded to Forbes & Brothers of Hopkinsville, their bid being $32,538.

Bread! Bread! Bread!

Having accepted the agency of Muth's Cinnamon Bread, I am now ready to furnish it fresh every morning at No. 105 East Third street, two doors from Martin Brothers. E. F. POWELL.

Duke Watson was at the head of a delightful party that went to Shannon yesterday, composed of Rev. E. B. Calk, Colonel Thomas Forman, C. C. Hopper, J. D. Dye, George H. Owens, Dr. D. C. Franklin and THE LEDGER man.

Rev. W. O. Cochrane, Pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church, will lead the prayer meeting this evening at the M. E. Church, South, at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. T. W. Watts having left this morning for Winchester to attend the Bluegrass Declamatory Contest.

Superintendent J. M. Gill, of the Cincinnati Division of the C. and O. road, states that there will be a change in the speed of the new F. V. train on that road. The new time card will be so changed that the arriving time of the train at terminals will be thirty minutes earlier.

This, from The West Union School, is something in the shape of news to us: Congress has granted a railroad company the privilege of constructing a bridge at Mayville to Columbus, O. West Union is right on the line. A few years ago a survey was made and the right of way granted along the line.

James William, who pulled a revolver on William Greenwood, gatekeeper at the ball grounds yesterday, was arrested at his home in Germantown at an early this morning by Constable W. B. Dawson. William complained of having the sick headache and could not come with Dawson, but put up $65 as security for his appearance this morning.

THE BIRDS FLY.

Three Prisoners Effect a Daring Escape This Morning.

Charles Desmond, Charles Smith and Frank Brown, the three toughs who were arrested at the C. and O. Station a few days ago and fined $25 each and given thirty days for carrying pistols, took French leave this morning.

Their method was as daring as it was successful. In company with three other prisoners, Evans, Cummings and Williams, they were at work in the city quarry.

James Molen the guard got too close to Desmond, when the latter grabbed him, took his pistol from him, and undressed made him give up the keys of the shackles.

Then the balls and chains were removed from Desmond, Smith and Brown, and transferred to Molen and the other prisoners.

Having thus made pursuit impossible the toughs lit out and were gone about an hour before the alarm could be given. They went via the Hill City pike.

LETTER FROM DOLLIE ROSE.

She Thanks "The Ledger" For the 150,000 Cancelled Stamps.

MANCHESTER, O., May 28th, 1894.

Editor Public Ledger: I received the fourth large collection of stamps from your office, and I am indeed grateful to you and your generous readers, and I thank each contributor.

I have received from your office over 150,000 stamps, besides 150,000 from Miss Rose Wadsworth of Kentucky, making in all 300,000 you have sent me.

Up to date I have received stamps from thirteen states and Kentucky is in the lead. I have received more stamps from the state of Kentucky than any other four states in the Union.

I heard a young lady from Mayville say you had been highly complimented for interest and you are taking in collecting stamps for me. I cannot express my gratitude to you for this kindness, and if more stamps at any time.

It will take me some time to prepare 1,500,000 stamps ready for sale, and when the most of them will turn on the 25th of this month, and Miss Maggie Weimer won the prize. The stamps were assorted, counted each cent and came to me by express a few days ago.

I am at present not so well, and think of going to the hospital some time in June.

I wish to say to those who are collecting stamps for me to please send to same address. My mother will receive them the same as if I was there, and we will be very grateful for all they send as they are to be sold to pay my expenses while undergoing medical treatment at the hospital.

Thanking you for past kindness and also your generous readers, gratefully, DOLLIE ROSE.

Miss Nannie Hudson, daughter of Hon. R. S. Hudson, met with a painful accident Monday evening at Flemingsburg. She was cleaning a pair of kid gloves with gasoline, when the fluid ignited from a lamp near by. Her arms were dreadfully burned and Mr. Hudson, who does stunts for the circus, was considerably scratched about the face. Fortunately the young lady's injuries are not dangerous.

An examination for white teachers in the Public Schools will be held in this city June 1st, commencing at 9 o'clock a. m., and for colored teachers June 8th, same hour.
